

European Master in Law and Economics (EMLE) Midterm Conference in Law and Economics Call for Papers

8 November 2019

The Rotterdam Institute of Law and Economics (RILE), Erasmus School of Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam is proud to host the Midterm Meeting of the European Master in Law and Economics Program in Rotterdam on 13 – 15 February 2020.

We invite scholars and graduate students in the field of Law and Economics to present their research at the academic conference in the morning of Friday 14 February 2020.

Please submit your paper or abstract as PDF-file to mtm2020@emle.org. Please indicate “MTM paper submission” as subject of the email. Priority in the selection process will be given to completed papers. Additionally, the organizing committee welcomes submission from scholars in the early stages of their academic career. The deadline to submit a paper is December 5, 2019. We will send notifications of acceptance before December 16.

The academic conference on Friday 14 February 2020 will commence at 9:00 am. The conference, which will celebrate the 30th academic year of the EMLE program, will include a keynote lecture by Prof. em. Boudewijn Bouckaert, the first director of the EMLE program. The day will be concluded by a formal conference dinner. The conference schedule will be available by mid-January 2020.

There will be no conference fee or any other costs associated with attending the academic program for presenters. In addition, the EMLE Program will provide complimentary refreshments and lunch during the conference.

Note that conference attendees and speakers must cover their own travel-related and accommodation expenses. For the convenience of the attendees, we will post relevant information about travel and accommodation on the conference website – www.emle.org/midterm-meeting-2020 – by December 2019. We kindly ask attendees to arrange their own accommodation with help of the provided information, though the organizer offers assistance if needed.
