One of the foundations of Positive Constitutional Economics is:

- Buchanan, J. and Tullock, G. (1962). The Calculus of Consent - Logical Foundations of Constitutional Democracy. Ann Arbor: University of Michigan Press (of which chapter 6 is *)

The possible functions of constitutions in autocratic regimes are nicely discussed in

- Elkins, Z., Ginsburg, T. & Melton, J (2014). The Content of Authoritarian Constitutions, In: Ginsburg, T., & Simpser, A. (Eds.). Constitutions in authoritarian regimes. Cambridge University Press, pp. 141-164.

An important contribution to Positive Constitutional Economy is:

- Persson, T., & Tabellini, G. (2003). The Economic Effects of Constitutions. Cambridge, MA: The MIT Press.

This is the first paper that assesses the economic consequences of direct democracy on a cross-country basis:
